SCHOOL REPORT.

DIS. NO. 1.

Mrs. M. A. Johnson, teacher of the first term. While some of the scholars made commendable improvement, there appeared to be a want of confidence between scholars and teacher.

The second term was in charge of Mr. W. J. Davis. His method of discipline was such, that he gained the respect and confidence of his pupils. The teacher appeared interested, the scholars studious, and the progress good. Examination exercises of both terms quite interesting.

DIS. NO. 2.

The first term was taught by Mrs. C. A. Kittredge an experienced and able teacher. Thoroughness in instruction, and good order, were prominent features in this school. Most of the scholars, wisely improved their time.

The second and third terms were in charge of Mr. C. H. Little.

These were his first efforts in teaching. Mr. Little is an active and zealous worker, a thorough scholar, and for facility in imparting instruction has but few equals. There are many excellent scholars who have done well in all the studies, they pursued. This second term was more successful than his first, which shows that practice, in teaching, is worth something, and that a school composed of good scholars with no bad ones, is the most pleasant and profitable.

DIS. NO. 3.

Miss A. Montgomery, teacher. There was only one term of school, of three scholars, in this district. The teacher appeared careful and faithful, and the examination showed good results.

DIS. NO. 4.

The first and second terms were under the able management of one of our best teachers, Miss M. J. Eaton. Miss Eaton is an industrious and faithful worker, who intends to excel in her vocation.

Both terms were highly successful.

Mr. M. P. Smith had charge of the third term. The school at the commencement appeared quite well. The class in analysis received its full share of attention. At the examination, it was evident, that the studious and more advanced scholars had done well, and were deserving of much credit, while if some of the less studious, had been looked after more closely, it would have been better for them, and the discipline of the school, improved thereby.

The select reading, at the examination of the first term, the declamations, compositions and the introductory and valedictory exercises, at the examination of each term, have not been equaled by any other school in town.

DIS. NO. 6.

Miss E. L. Collins has had the charge of this school during four terms, in succession. The careful attention, given to the reading and spelling exercises, deserves much credit. Being a competent and faithful teacher and a good disciplinarian, her scholars made excellent progress.

DIS. NO. 7.

Mrs. Lydia M. Nelson was teacher of the first, and Miss Linda E. Nelson teacher of the second term. This district has been very fortunate in the selection of teachers. With excellent teachers, a new and good house, and good scholars, both terms were quite satisfactory.

DIS. NO. 8.

Miss Dora R. Flanders, Teacher. This district had but one term, of seven weeks. Miss Flanders manifested an aptness to teach and govern, which we find not often excelled, considering it her first attempt. Improvement good.

DIS. NO. 9.

The first and second terms of this school, were in charge of Miss Abbie A. Peaslee, who spared no labor or time to make her school both pleasant and profitable. Good order, the confidence and respect of her pupils, crowned her efforts with success.

Examination exercises, very interesting.

The third term was under the instruction of Mr. F. M. Richards, who, appeared desirous to impart to his scholars a thorough and practical knowledge, of the studies pursued. A class, of small scholars in Greenleaf's new elementary Arithmetic, deserve special mention. The method of spelling, adopted for the larger class, and the interest manifested therein, we have not seen excelled.

DIS. NO. 10.

The first term was under the instruction of Miss L. E. Nelson, one of our best disciplinarians. The scholars appeared very orderly and studious. This was a profitable term.

Miss A. M. Sargent taught the second term. This was not so successful as the first. The disrespectful acts of insubordination by one of the larger scholars did not promote the teacher's influence, or improve the school. Scholars, who attend school for the purpose of intellectual culture and for refinement in their scholar-like appearance, do not often need serious reproof.

DIS. NO. 11.

The school, in this district, being considered unprofitable, by your committee, was closed, after continuing about one week.

DIS. NO. 12.

Miss Grace A. Russell taught the first term. By her diligent and faithful efforts, the few scholars under her charge made commendable improvement.

The second term was taught by Miss M. W. Morgan. This was her first term. She evidently considers the importance of her work, and intends to excel in it.

Teacher competent and faithful. Progress good.

DIS. NO. 13.

The first term was taught by Miss N. J. Nelson. This was her first work, as teacher, and with the co-operation of the parents, and the respect of the scholars, it appeared to be a pleasant and profitable school.

Miss C. I. Gould, Teacher. The teachers experience, and qualifications, and the scholars interest in their studies, made this, the second term, rank as one of our best. The examination was well attended by the citizens of the district, who appeared quite interested.

DIS. NO. 14.

The studious habits of the scholars combined with the able management of the teacher, Miss S. Reddington, made this, the first term highly satisfactory.

The second term, was, perhaps no less successful, than the first under the instruction of Mrs. M. H. Roby, a teacher of much experience, who has taught this school, very acceptably several terms in succession. The examination exercises of both terms, were, satisfactory.

Joseph Johnson, School Committee.
